

Music Elements

April 2014 Newsletter

The Beat is What Counts~

We're Proud!

Erin Bean's school is hosting a talent show in May. She is auditioning for the show and going to perform Amsterdam by Imagine Dragons! Good luck Erin!

Dahlia Pecchia's Destination Imagination team came in 1st place in the regional tournament in their category and are moving up to the States tournament this weekend!

Jackie Pottle will be performing in April with Sachi Badola (another Byam 4th Grader) in the auditorium for the MIT Lincoln Laboratory Daughter's Day Concert. They will start off singing God Bless the USA together in acapella and then each perform one solo act. Jackie will sing "Unconditionally" by Katy Perry. Get her autograph now!

Got some news that you would like to share?

Let us know if there is something you have to share in our newsletter and we will post your accomplishments so that everyone can share in the news!

Give it up for Matt Richardson and Evan Sayer! They are members of the pit orchestra for CHS's theater performances. They will take the stage again for a Spring Musical, Hairspray which will be held May 1 - May 3rd. Make sure to visit the pit orchestra and give a shout out to Matt and Evan!

Girl Scouts is very active this month with a Fairy Tale Murder Mystery Party. Look for two of our students. Nicole McGinty. will be playing the part of Ruby (AKA Little Red Riding Hood) and Jessica Pearse will be playing the part of Matilda (AKA Queen of Hearts)! Who knows where their roles will take them. It depends on who you vote for. Will they be a Victim or a Murderer? Only you can decide when you see the play and vote for the outcome!! Jessica and Nicole also performed a comedy skit on March 29th for their Girl Scout Troop's Talent Show!

Raylene Rocheleau attends the St. Louis school in Lowell. They had an auction to raise money for the school on Saturday, March 29th. In addition to the auction, the Show Choir group performed and the theme of their show was "A Little Off Broadway". Raylene is a member of the Show Choir and also sang a solo performance: "If My Friends Could See Me Now". 3 Cheers for Raylene!

We mentioned in our March Newsletter that Kyra Lasorsa was the vice president of the theatre club at Mount Wachusett Community College. Apparently she is doing a great job as she is now co-president! The club is presenting a cabaret on Tuesday, April 29th from 7-9pm at Mount Wachusett Community College in Gardner, MA in room 182. Admission in free and donations welcome to help the school put on more great productions. Kyra will be performing the song she learned in class, Say Something by A Great Big World. Sounds like it might be worth the drive!

Parker Middle School in Chelmsford is having their Talent Show this Saturday, April 5th. If you can make it, you'll catch Maeve DiPasquale singing "Brave." Getting in lots of practice singing for an audience, Maeve plans on performing "Give Me a Reason" by Pink in the Byam Talent Show, as well, on April 12th. We know she will do well. She already made her family very proud with her performance last weekend with the All-State Treble Chorus at the Seaport Hotel in Boston. Way to go, Maeve!

If you don't find your name in this month's newsletter, we will try to catch you next month. Be sure to share with your instructor about your activities.

HAPPY EASTER!

ANITA, BRETT, DYLAN,
NAOMI, MARLANA, JOHN,
JOCELYN & PETER

